INDIAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION'S ANNUAL FALL SHOW

D E E W A N A

THE PERFORMANCES

Nrityalaya Dance Academy

Nrityalaya Dance Academy (NDA) has been a major proponent of the Indian Classical Art forms in Minnesota since the early 90s. They have been opening for our show for the past 8 years.

Indian Student Association

ISA is a non-profit organization with the intent to preserve and promote the Indian culture in the University of Minnesota community. We welcome you to Deewana!

Beta Chi Theta

Beta Chi Theta is South-Asian interest multicultural fraternity established at UMN-Twin Cities in 2006. Built on brotherhood, tradition, academics, and service, their organization strives to develop our members into gentlemen and leaders.

Rangeela

Rangeela incorporates various dance styles including Bharatanatyam, kuthu, and hip-hop. Every dancer is given the opportunity to convey a story, and Rangeela wants to express their passion for dancing.

Sahadeo

Sahadeo Ramjatan is a graduate student at the University of Minnesota with a passion for music. He enjoys learning Indian classical music, both vocal and instrumental. Today he will be singing a Kannada love which means "it's all because of you."

Saath Taareh

Saath Taareh is a dance group organized by ISA specifically for tonight's show. The performers in this group came together to have a good time and celebrate their shared love of dance. Saath Taareh means "7 stars" which represents each of the 7 dancers.

Minnesota Fitoor

MN Fitoor is UMN's premier fusion acapella group! Fitoor strives to combine music of various cultures and showcase the university's incredibly talented performers. They perform around the Twin Cities and compete within the Fusion Acapella Circuit. They are singing a mashup of Woh Din, Hey Soul Sister & Jaane Kyun.

-----INTERMISSION-----

Minnesota Agni

Minnesota Agni was the first Indian Classical Dance group founded on campus. It was established in 2019 by passionate Bharatanatyam dancers to create a community where Indian Classical dancers can keep in touch with their passion and find a niche on campus.

Aditya Prabhu

Aditya will be playing the Carnatic classical song Bhagyada Lakshmi on the Alto-Saxophone. The Carnatic music style originates from South India, and at its core consists of different ragas, or scales, played over a tala, or rhythmic cycle. Aditya's teacher is a renowned saxophonist by name E R Janardhan who is a disciple of late Padmashri Kadri Gopalnath who pioneered playing saxophone in Carnatic style music.

SEWA-AIFW Speech

SEWA-AIFW is a nonprofit organization committed to serving, supporting, and enhancing family wellness for the South Asian community. They provide health care access, wellness information and resources, access to family violence resources and supports, and elder socialization activities.

Minnesota Junoon

Minnesota Junoon is the University of Minnesota's premier, co-ed Bollywood-fusion dance team. "Junoon" is the Hindi word for passion. Junoon competes in the competitive, nationwide Bollywood-fusion dance circuit against the best teams from other universities.

Twin Cities Bhangra

Twin Cities Bhangra is the UMN's premier Bhangra team. They perform at events on and off campus and enjoy spreading Punjabi culture through dance wherever they go!

Dhoom Dance Crew

Dhoom Dance Crew is a Bollywood-fusion performance dance team. Their performances showcase a variety of dance styles such as Indian classical dance, hip-hop, Bhangra, and Bollywood.
